Suit About Wharf Property.

Before Dr. W. W. Harriss, Justice of the Peace, an interesting civil suit was heard yesterday. It was brought by Mr. Thos. F. Bagley against Capt. Charles Wessell and involves a riparian right. Mr. Bagley owns wharf property near the foot of Ann street. He claims that the defendant is indebted to him in the sum of $70 for seven months rent of the wharf. Capt. Wessell has used the place on different occasions for tieing up his boats. Capt. Wessell claims that the boats were made secure to piling in front of the wharf and placed there under instructions from the Harbor Master of the port. He contends, therefore, that the piling are not a part of the property. The plaintiff is represented by Thomas Evans, Esq., and Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., appears for the defendant. Dr. Harriss has reserved his decision until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Funeral of Mrs. E. G. Polley.

Impressive funeral services were conducted yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock from Grace M. E. church over the remains of the late Mrs. E. G. Polley, whose sudden death on Tuesday morning was chronicled in these columns. The service was conducted by Rev. J. N. Cole, pastor of the deceased, who paid a very beautiful tribute to Mrs. Polley's Christian womanhood and devotion to her church. Rev. Mr. Cole was assisted by Rev. J. W. Potter, pastor of Market Street M. E. church. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery, where many beautiful floral tributes were laid upon the grave.

The pall bearers were Messrs. E. F. Johnson, R. H. Pickett, W. H. Yopp, R. H. Beery, H. O. Craig and John Haar.

Picnic at Beatty's Bridge.

Owing to his pressing duties as counsel for plaintiff in the case of Moore vs. Navassa Guano Company, now being heard at Southport, Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy has been compelled to cancel his engagement to speak at the big "Farmers' Dinner and Picnic" at Beatty's Bridge to-day. A large crowd is expected to be present at the picnic, which is in honor of the formal opening of a splendid bridge across the river at that point.

IMPORTANT CAPTURE

THE EVIDENCE IN THE CASE.

Prisoner is White Man of Alleged Bad Character and Was Brought to the City Last Night by Sergeant Burnett.

After energetic pursuit by the police for four days the man confessing to be the assailant of Policeman E. R. Chadwick was captured yesterday by Sergeant C. S. Burnett in Brunswick county.

The man captured is John R. Potter, white, who is known more familiarly as "John Reb" Potter, aged about 35 years, and last employed at the Delgado Mills. Chief Furlong received a telegram from Sergeant Burnett giving the bare facts of the capture and stating that he would arrive in the city last night via the W. C. & A. railroad from Brinkley, which is just across over the Brunswick line in Columbus county.

Potter evaded capture since his alleged crime Saturday night in a most mysterious manner but Chief Furlong determined upon his arrest at any cost. After shooting Mr. Chadwick, Potter remained in the city until Sunday morning and then crossed over into Brunrwick county, his native home. Although most diligent search was made for him Saturday night and Sunday morning, there was little clue to his whereabouts. Sergeant Burnett, who has been most active in his efforts to catch the man ascertained that Potter or some one had shot into the house of a woman living near Fifth and Wright streets. He soon discovered that the tracks about the street where the shooting occurred, were not those of the negro Fisher, who was at first charged with the offence, and he followed the tracks to Greenfield mill pond and later discovered that Potter had made an unsuccessful attempt to get a boat to cross the river further down. Sunday morning about three o'clock he crossed at Hilton bridge and Sergeant Burnett and Policeman Marcus Gray were detailed by Chief Furlong to follow his trail. Later, Chief Furlong and Policeman E. Skipper went over but returned with Policeman Gray, leaving Sergeant Burnett in possession of a clue which he was instructed to follow. About twelve miles from the city Potter had passed the house of Tom Henry and about four miles further on he had been seen by a relative, Mr. Sam Potter, who gave the officers all information possible. The next place where Potter was located was at the house of a gentleman named Raven, where he had dinner, shaved off his mustache and left by mistake the club which had been wrested from Policeman Chadwick on the night of the shooting. From there track of Potter was lost and Sergeant Burnett associated with him in the search Deputy Sheriff Skipper, of Brunswick. The two officers scoured the country in search of the man, going to Cronly, Freeman's Cross Roads and later down to Brinkley. Near Brinkley Deputy Sheriff Reaves, of Columbus, was added to the searching party and in his cart the officers started yesterday morning to the home of a relative of Potter's in Columbus county. On their way to the place Sergeant Burnett spotted his man, carrying a small black valise along a by-path in Green swamp, about twenty-five miles from Wilmington. Sergeant Burnett was armed with a repeating shotgun and levelled the same at Potter with instructions at a distance of about fifty yards to throw up his hands. He dropped the valise and did as the Sergeant requested. He was taken altogether by surprise and on his way to Brinkley confessed everything. He was afraid he had killed Policeman Chadwick and inquired anxiously about his condition. He said that he shot because he was drunk and determined not to be taken. From Brinkley he was brought in last night on a local freight train, arriving at 11:40 o'clock. In his valise were a number of articles of clothing, $1 in money, but no weapon. The only signs on Potter's body to indicate that he was in the scramble with the officer is a pistol shot flesh wound on his breast. The ball entered the clothing but barely penetrated the flesh. The pistol the officer carried was a British bull-dog pattern of very poor quality.

Potter is said to have a very unsavory reputation in the community at large. Some time ago he is said to have made a murderous attack upon Wess Odam, white, by beating him in the face with a brick. For this offence he was never brought into court and evaded arrest from every source. Other petty offences are charged to him here, and in his native county he is described as a "mortal terror." Many of the citizens fear him and a number of crimes are said to be charged to his commission both in Brunswick and Columbus.

Potter is a married man, but is said to be separated from his wife. He has two children living on the sound.

Policeman Chadwick, who was shot and beaten badly about the face and head with the butt of a pistol and his own club, is doing very well and will likely be able to appear against Potter in the Mayor's court in a few days.

THE MOORE DAMAGE SUIT.

Most Celebrated Case in History of County Still in Hearing at Southport—The Witnesses Examined.

John H. Gore, Jr., Esq., of counsel for defendant, Mr. Fred. Kidder and a number of other witnesses interested in the case of F. M. Moore vs. Navassa Guano Company, at Southport, came up to the city last night at 10 o'clock on the tug Navassa.

As predicted before in these columns, the case will consume the balance of this week in hearing, and it will likely be late Saturday afternoon before the issues are given to the jury. Up to Tuesday noon, thirty of the seventy-five witnesses for the plaintiff had been examined, and at that stage the plaintiff rested. The defendant then began with its witnesses, and those that have thus far been examined are Mr. E. Borden, manager of the chemical department of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company; Mr. H. W. Malloy, president of the Navassa Guano Company; Mr. Peter S. Gilchrist, an expert chemist, of Charlotte; Mr. W. W. MacRae, superintendent of the acid chambers at Navassa; Mr. B. G. Worth, who testified as to the rental of the "Hall place" before it passed into the hands of plaintiff; Mr. T. W. Bixby, an expert from Baltimore, as to the construction of acid chambers; Messrs. D. L. Gore, S. P. McNair, J. H. Brown, of Wilmington, and S. L. Chinnis, of Brunswick county.

Dr. Charles Baskerville, professor of chemistry in the University of North Carolina, went on the stand in the afternoon yesterday and had not concluded his testimony when court took a recess last night.

It is expected that it will require until to-morrow night to finish with the witnesses and argument will be made by counsel to the jury on Saturday. By agreement the speeches will be limited to one hour each.

AT OPERA HOUSE TO-NIGHT.

Miss Leah Lessi Will Appear in the Old Favorite Emotional Play "East Lynne."

The production of "East Lynne," which will be seen to-night at the Opera House, is said to be the best that has been given this famous old play in many years, and will doubtless prove to be one of the events of the local theatrical season.

The charming young emotional actress, Miss Leah Lessi, will portray the dual role of Lady Isabel and Madame Vine. Critics are almost unanimous in declaring her to be Mrs. Henry Wood's ideal "Isabel." The version which will be seen here, was written by Miss Lessi herself after a careful study of the novel, and the stage presentation it is said will be as true to the book as it is possible to make the two coincide. Miss Lessi has an excellent supporting company.

One of the features of this production that will be pleasing to ladies is the beautiful gowns worn by Miss Lessi. They were all designed and manufactured, according to the claim of the management, in Paris last Summer. Besides her splendid ability as actress, Miss Lessi is well known in the musical circles, many of her compositions having become popular. Seats are now on sale at Gerken's.

CRAZY VIRGINIA COLORED MAN.

He Will be Taken To-day to Emporia in Charge of Deputy.

Deputy Sheriff W. H. Cox will leave to-day for Emporia, Va., carrying with him Joseph McD. Funn, the educated colored man from that State, who was recently adjudged insane by a commission of lunacy in this city.

It will be remembered that Funn is the negro who was taken in custody by the police several weeks ago, and imagines that some one is pursuing him for a crime that only has being in his deranged brain. The transfer of Funn to Virginia is in accordance with the laws of North Carolina, and Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court, will send with the prisoner all the papers in the case, including two letters written by Funn while in prison to Chief of Police Furlong. In this letter the delusions of the deranged man are pretty accurately summed up.

Married Yesterday Afternoon.

Miss S. Ethel Campbell, daughter of Dr. D. B. Campbell, of Loris, S. C., was married yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to Mr. J. B. Smith, of this city, the Rev. J. N. Cole, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, officiating. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mrs. Thees, No. 313 Chesnut street, where the bride and groom will reside in the future. Only a few friends were present.

Another Cotton Cargo.

The British steamship Roxby, was cleared yesterday morning by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son with a cargo of 10,586 bales of cotton for Bremen, Germany. Last year on Oct. 3rd, six cargoes had been cleared for foreign export, whereas this year only two cargoes have gone forward. The British steamship Linwood has cleared for Charleston, S. C., for a cargo.

CANVASS BEGUN YESTERDAY.

Merchants Anxiously Take Hold of Scheme to Promote Their Interests During Fair Week—One of Bostock-Ferari's Many Attractions.

As early as the middle of next week the merchants of the city in the Elk Carnival district will begin erecting fancy booths in front of their stores, and the indications are that a large majority of them will be novel and beautiful, adding much to the gala attire of the city upon that occasion.

Mr. F. C. Huffman, the fair promoter, and Mr. H. J. Gerken, chairman of the Carnival Executive Committee, yesterday began a canvass of the business houses at Walnut street and met with much encouragement in the way of promises for booth building. It was impossible to get over all the area yesterday, but the canvass will be continued to-day and to-morrow, if not finished sooner.

Many of the merchants will build very elaborate booths and have them handsomely decorated and lighted. Decorative material, including many floral designs and Elks' bunting in white and purple, have been ordered by the merchants, and much of it has already arrived; notably at the stores of the C. W. Polvogt Company and C. W. Yates & Co.

The Fair and Carnival now promises even greater things than was at first expected. The attractions will be many and varied. Wherever the Bostock-Ferari shows have appeared this year they have given great satisfaction.

Moving pictures kept up to date are always an interesting exhibition. The announcement of the subjects that will be exhibited and illustrated is sufficient proof that the one coming with the Midway company will be of unusual merit. The President's funeral is the latest prominent one that the Edison company has munufactured. It will be the first American production outside of New York city of Edison's latest films, illustrating all the ceremony attending the sad event. The pictures were taken on the spot by special operators of the Edison Company. The roll measures 1,000 feet, and more than 20,000 distinct pictures are necessary to reproduce the scenes, which include the funeral cortege, etc.

Five hundred feet of films made when Carrie Nation was on her joint smashing crusades in Kansas will also be presented. The robust home defender and her band of wreckers are shown at work with their hatchets and the exhibition undoubtedly will prove a drawing card. A trip to the moon, a laughable Parisian moving picture invention, is featured with the other presentations, as is also the only successful colored animated scenes depicting the beautiful pantomime "Cinderilla." The pictures are perfect and and are given on a 1901 model of the Edison machine, which causes no vibration or the usual fluttering that is almost invariably found in an exhibition of this nature. The show lasts fully forty-five minutes and is easily worth five times the amount of admission charges. By the aid of especially manufactured black canvass the pictures are as equally well shown in the day time as at night.

L'ARIOSO GERMAN CLUB.

Enthusiastic Reorganization Meeting at Masonic Temple Last Night—Election of Officers and New Members.

At a largely attended and very enthusiastic meeting last evening of L'Arioso German Club, a reorganization for the season was effected by the election of the following officers:

President—Capt. Donald MacRae.
Vice President—Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr. 3rd.
Secretary and Treasury—Mr. C. McD. Davis.
Leader—Mr. Clayton Giles, Jr.
Governing Board—Capt. E. W. VanC. Lucas, Messrs. J. Walter Williamson, H. B. Peschau and J. M. Stevenson.

The selection of Mr. Clayton Giles, Jr., as leader, carries with it a decided compliment in that it is the third year that he has been honored by his clubmates in election to that position.

After the regular meeting of the club, the governing board held an enthusiastic meeting, at which the membership was increased to the constitutional limit by the election of the following: Messrs. R. G. Rankin, Jr., Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Lieut. B. M Chiswell, Capt. R. G. Gardner, Lieut. T. W. Holliday and Lieut. Garrison Ball.

The date for the opening dance of the season will be decided upon by the governing board this week.

"Measuring Party" this Evening.

Hundreds of young people who have received invitations to the "measuring party" to be given in the lecture room of Fifth Street M. E. Church under the auspices of the N. N. S. Society, are looking forward with much pleasure to that event to-night. A final rehearsal of the very excellent programme to be observed on the occasion was had last night and the young people who arranged the same, promise a delightful evening for all who attend.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Wilmington Lodge of Odd Fellows will have work in the third degree to-night.

— Mr. Thomas W. Davis has been appointed chairman of the amusement committee of the Elks' Fair.

— The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

— The city market houses are now observing Winter hours. They close at 12 o'clock and re-open in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

— The steamer Beatrice, of the Atlantic Fisheries Company, has arrived from Cape Charles, Va., where she has been since the menhaden season closed here several months ago.

— The negro Jim Sanders, who was recently sent from Wilmington to Mullins, S. C., for trial with four others for house-breaking and burglary, has been held for the higher court in South Carolina. He broke into a store at Mullins and stole a number of watches, pistols and other articles.

Captured South Carolina Convict.

Policeman I. F. Huggins yesterday afternoon went up to the Powers & Gibbs' factory and arrested Jim Douglass, a middle-aged colored man, who is wanted at Marion, S. C., as an escaped prisoner from the county convict camp there. He is thought to be one of the number who escaped with Major Henderson, who was captured here and returned to South Carolina about two weeks ago. Douglass denies that he is wanted in South Carolina. Superintendent J. T. Dozier, of the Marion chain gang, is expected to come for the prisoner to-day.

Valuable Horse Died.

A valuable family horse, belonging to Mr. James F. Woolvin, died yesterday morning of blind staggers, produced, in the opinion of Dr. T. B. Carroll, the veterinary surgeon, by mosquito bites. The horse was familiary known about town by the name of "Dan." He was 16 years of age, but was fast on the track and highly valued by his owner. Dr. Carroll says hundred of horses have died this year along the North Carolina coast from disease produced by mosquito bites.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 30th, 1901.

To the owners of property that I represent and the public in general:

Owing to the fact that I intend engaging in another business and knowing that my clients will receive the best of service and satisfactory attention from that enterprising firm of J. G. WRIGHT & SON, I have transferred my entire interest and good will in the Real Estate, Renting and Collecting business formerly conducted by me to Messrs. WRIGHT & SON and can assure all those with whom I have had business dealings, whether owner or tenant, that they will receive every courtesy and that careful attention to detail which has always been characteristic of this enterprising firm's dealings.

I take this opportunity of thanking my old patrons most heartily for their favors, and kindly ask of my old associates that they will let their business continue with my successors, J. G. WRIGHT & SON, whom I am confident will give them good service.

Respectfully,
A. SMITH.

To the Public—Having succeeded to the Real Estate, Renting and Collecting business formerly conducted by Mr. Andrew Smith, we respectfully ask that the owners of property handled by Mr. Smith will continue their business with us. We have competent help and are in every way prepared to give your business prompt attention.

Yours, very respectfully,

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 3.

RECIPROCITY FIGURES.

In view of the fact that the reciprocity question is now becoming a subject for discussion throughout the country, and will become a subject of discussion in Congress, the U. S. Treasury Department has prepared a brief statement of the treaties entered into with various countries, with tables showing the imports from and exports to some of those countries, for the period in which the treaties were in operation and for two years before and two years after, the object being to show as well as practicable the effect of the treaties.

The statement shows that there have been three distinct tests of reciprocity as follows:

"(1.) The reciprocity treaty with Canada, existing from 1854 to 1866.

"(2.) The reciprocity treaty with the Hawaiian government, existing from 1876 to the date of annexation, 1898.

"(3.) The series of treaties framed under the McKinley tariff act of 1890, beginning with the treaty with Brazil, April 1, 1891; Dominican republic, August 1, 1891; Spain, for Cuba and Porto Rico, September 1, 1891; Germany, February 1, 1892; United Kingdom, for the British West Indies and British Guiana, February 1, 1892; Nicaragua, April 15, 1892; Austria-Hungary, May 25, 1892; Honduras, May 25, 1899, and Guatemala, May 30, 1892.

It then takes up the different countries in succession and enumerates the articles which were placed upon the free list or on which the duties were materially lowered, embracing a considerable number in all, and of course embracing the chief articles of export from the countries with which the treaties were made.

Some have given James G. Blaine the credit of having been the originator of the reciprocity idea, but this statement shows that it was one of Mr. Blaine's borrowed ideas, in operation as far back as 1854, and at intervals since then, and at times with a number of countries, and with the Hawaiian islands nearly fifteen years before Mr. Blaine essayed to attach it to the McKinley tariff.

The following tables show the dates of some of the reciprocity treaties, and the volume of the imports and exports during the period of the operation of the treaty and for two years prior to the existence, and two years subsequent to the repeal or expiration of the treaties as follows, with

France	May 30, 1898
Portugal	June 12, 1900
Germany	July 10, 1900
Italy	July 18, 1900

In addition to these there were treaties formed under the McKinley tariff with Brazil, Guatemala, Honduras, British Guinea, Nicaragua, San Domingo, somewhat similar to those with the West Indies, and with Austria-Hungary, somewhat similar to that with Germany.

Reference to the figures of these tables will show that the results varied, but the effect was to increase both imports and exports, not always in the same proportion, although the increase in exports was large and in some cases considerably larger than the imports, and it doesn't seem to have interfered with or retarded the growth of our manufacturing industries. With the majority of the countries the treaties provided for the free admission of or low duties on articles of which we then produced but little if any, and which consequently were not articles that much interest was taken in protecting, so whether our trade was materially increased with these countries or not we were material gainers because we got these articles for a less price than we could have gotten them, if we could get them at all, with a high tariff on them. In this respect both countries were gainers by reciprocity, regardless of the increase of trade and the corresponding benefit conferred upon the traders, so that reciprocity was good for all.

Of course the effect it will have on the trade between this country and others will depend upon a number of things, the population, products, progress and development, whether it is a purely agricultural country or both agricultural and manufacturing that we are dealing with. To some we sell cotton goods, meats, agricultural and other machinery; to others we sell other things which they need and do not make for themselves, and so we take from them the commodities that we either cannot or do not produce, or do not produce a sufficiency of, so that reciprocity will not operate alike in any two cases, but it is better than high tariffs and the next thing to free trade, when free trade is impracticable.

THE APPLE GROWING INDUSTRY.

The apple growing industry of the United States is an immense one, and very profitable to those whose orchards are well located and who give the business the attention it should receive. There are apple growers whose annual income from this crop is from twenty thousand to fifty thousand dollars, and they haven't extraordinarily large orchards either, but they raise apples which have a fine reputation, are in demand and command good prices. There are such orchards in Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee and Missouri, and doubtless in other States, the crops of which are eagerly sought by apple dealers who buy them on the trees, pay a high price and do the picking themselves. These are all for use in the large cities of the North or for export.

There is no section of the United States better adapted to the growth of apples, nor one in which a greater variety can be grown, or which produces them in greater perfection, than North Carolina, every part of which from the flat country by the sea to the Western valleys and mountain sides, producing fruit of rare excellence. And there is probably no State in the Union in which there are more orchards, and in which they receive less attention than in North Carolina, the general impression seeming to be that the apple, like the hickory nut, walnut, chinquepin, persimmon or blackberry, needs no attention, but will take care of itself. The very abundance of the fruit and little trouble in raising it have operated against it, and against its proper appreciation either as a fruit for home use, or for market. Years ago they were grown principally for converting into cider and brandy, and for home use, the hogs getting what were left or what fell from the trees. Out of the fruit, as fruit, very few growers realized any money.

Now, however, more attention is being given to orchards by men who live near railroads, because they have discovered that there is profit in shipping the fruit, but most of them have a good deal to learn about the way to handle and ship so that the apples will reach market in the proper condition, and bring them and the merchant who handles them satisfactory prices. Judging from the North Carolina apples that come to this market, at least one-half of them are damaged, bruised and spoiled either in the picking, packing or on the way, and the result is not only these are spoiled but good apples with them, and a shipment, which if properly made, would bring good prices, pays little or nothing and thus the shipper is hurt and the industry too. If apples can be shipped from the interior of New York and reach Wilmington in good condition, apples from points in North Carolina not two hundred miles distant surely should.

FOOLING WITH EMMA

According to a Chicago dispatch Emma Goldman is to deliver in that town to-night the speech which Czolgoss said inspired him to assassinate President McKinley. Her object in repeating it, she says, is to let the public see whether there is any assassination-inspiring talk in it, but the probabilities are that Emma's real object is to rake in the door money which the lecture will bring, as after all the talk about it there will naturally be some curiosity to hear it and get a good square look at Emma and a lot of other anarchists all for one and the same price.

The dispatch informs us that there will be detectives in the hall "to preserve order and keep the speaker's utterances within proper bounds." Preserving order is all right, but how about "keeping the speaker's utterances within proper bounds?" With a censorship like this, and policemen standing around to call Emma down when she warms up, is it likely that the speech which she will deliver will be the same one she delivered in Cleveland which Czolgosz says had such a fiery effect upon him? Under these circumstances it will likely be a very tame affair and the crowd who go to hear it will be disappointed.

A New York man, who was in the importing business some years ago, wrestled with his conscience for a long time, but conscience finally got him down and the result was that a few days ago Secretary Gage received a nameless registered letter containing $6,100 which he had beaten Uncle Sam out of. He expressed his regrets that it took conscience so long to down him.

BOOK NOTICES.

"Her Grace's Secret" is the title of a very interesting and well written story by Violet Tweedale, just issued from the presses of George W. Jacobs & Co., publishers, 103-105 South Fifteenth Street, Philadelphia. It is a clearly printed, neatly bound volume of 471 pages, interesting throughout.

The Atlantic Monthly for October presents a fine list of contents, varied in character, but all interesting, both entertaining and instructive. This number contains the concluding paper on reconstruction in the South, which has been running for some time and has thrown a great deal of light on that dark question. Published by Houghton, Mifflin and Company, No. 4 Park street, Boston.

The Bookman for October is a capital number with a varied and interesting list of contents handsomly illustrated. In addition to other matter it contains an interesting sketch of Herbert Spencer, the Man and the Philosopher, with Chronicle and Comment, always a valuable and instructive feature of this publication. Published by Dodd, Meade and Company, Fifth Avenue, New York.

McClure's Magazine, as usual, is up to date, the October number presenting a fine list of contents, copiously illustrated. Among other interesting papers is a sketch of J. Pierpont Morgan, entitled "Why He Succeeded." The lover of sports will enjoy "Elephant Hunting in Africa," Kipling's "Kim" is continued. Published by The S. S. McClure Company, 141-155 East Twenty-fifth street, New York.

CURRENT COMMENT

— It is becoming more clearly revealed that the navy is divided between two warring factions on the Sampson-Schley controversy. Upon the numerical strength of the two factions it would be difficult to determine. — Philadelphia Record, Dem.

— President Roosevelt is not only a member of several scientific societies at the national capital, but also of the Alpine Club, of London. It was his daring exploits in the Swiss Mountains that secured him this coveted honor. There are few men in public life who are as versatile as he, and still fewer who do everything they undertake so well. —Philadelphia Telegraph, Rep.

— The Schley court of inquiry has about degenerated into a search into the accuracy of the authorized maps and charts of the navy department, with sad results to the same; also the memories of the naval profession are in need of repairs, and must have been damaged by the firing of the heavy artillery during the thousands of times the story of Santiago was retold with additions and a plentiful supply of I's.—Baltimore Herald, Rep.

— The St. Louis Chronicle publishes the cut of the man who, it alleges, executed the murderers of President Lincoln. It is pretty well settled now that there was only one murderer of President Lincoln, and he was not executed. He refused to surrender and was shot. If Mrs. Surratt is referred to as the "murderers" of President Lincoln, it may be stated that the men who were most active in bringing her to the gallows lived long enough to become satisfied that they had caused an innocent woman to be hanged.—Jacksonville Times-Union and Citizen, Dem.

TWINKLINGS.

— To Prevent "Shyness—Pokeleigh—"What is that quotation about a 'watched pot?'" Fourflush—"I don't know, but I can assure you that I never sat in a game where the pot wasn't watched pretty closely."—Philadelphia Press.

— She—Mabel was terribly disappointed last night. Belle—In what way? Sue — Why, Charley came around and said he was going to tell her the "old, old, story." Belle—And did he propose? Sue—No; he told her about Jonah and the whale.—Philadelphia Record.

— Discovered: They had been married a year before anybody knew it, and even then their secret was discovered only by accident. Indeed? Yes; one evening at a card party they thoughtlessly played partners, and the way they quarrelled let the whole thing out.

— "Mr. Cheepklurk," said the head of the firm, "will you explain why, after asking for yesterday to attend to some legal business, you spent the day with your girl?" "Yes, sir," returned the employe. "That isn't illegal, is it?"—Philadelphia Record.

— Inkerton—Are you doing anything in a literary way? Pennibs—Yes; I'm at work on a novel. Inkerton—What do you intend calling it? Pennibs—I had thought of calling it "What I Told My Wife." Inkerton—Why not call it "What I Didn't Tell My Wife?" Truth, you know, is stranger than fiction.—Chicago News.

— The Ingredients—"What did you find on that vessel which washed ashore this morning?" asked the Cannibal King of his chief. "Only a shipwrecked shoemaker and a case of sherry, sire." "'Tis well, slave. Make me a sherry cobbler for dinner. I have often heard of such a delicacy."—Bali American.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Washington Gazette: A farmer said to us: "All this talk about the cotton crop being short in Beaufort county will prove untrue if we have a late fall and the top bolls have time to mature. There is the largest top growth of cotton this year ever known, and all that is necessary to make it an average yield is a late frost and time for it to mature."

— Kinston Free Press: Mr. Joe Ballard, a tinner, was arrested Tuesday morning on a charge of forgery. The case is to be heard before Justice Cox Thursday. Ballard was sent to jail to await the trial in default of a $250 bond. Mr. E. W. Huff, a merchant on Tuckahoe, cashed a check for Ballard made out to John Baxter. The check called for $25.00 and was on the Citizens' Savings Bank, and contained Judge O. H. Allen's signature. Mr. Huff found the check was a forgery and had the warrant issued for Ballard, who claims that Baxter gave him the check. When questioned as to who Baxter was he said he was from Duplin county.

— Statesville Landmark: Dr. Solomon Angle, a well known citizen of the county, died Sunday at 1 o'clock at his home near Houstonville, in Eagle Mills township. He had been in failing health for some time. Dr. Angle was 76 years old. He was a native of Richmond, Va., and moved to Iredell from Virginia just after the civil war, in which he had served as a Confederate soldier. He was a dentist by profession and in this way obtained the title of doctor, but he had not procticeb his profession in many years. — The reunion of the descendants of James King at the ancestral home (now the residence of Mr. J. D. Patterson) in Sharpesburg township, Friday, was attended by 127 persons.

— Monroe Journal: Mrs. Margaret McCorkle, of West Monroe township, died Tuesday of last week at the age of 65 years. — Mr. George A. Long, Sr., died at his home, near Love's Level, in Goose Creek township, Sunday night, at the advanced age of 86 years. — Steve Welsh, the young son of Dr. S. J. Welsh, was severely bitten by a supposed mad dog one morning last week. He was at once taken to Dr. O'Donohughe, at Charlotte, and the madstone applied. It adhered to the wounds for several hours. — Bill Robinson, an old colored man who has a farm near town, is very proud of his patch of Cluster cotton. He brings the Journal a limb which has six bolls crowded into about three inches of space.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and hands, and the doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Guaranteed.

KINDLY TAKE NOTICE that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is of great benefit to those sufferers from nasal catarrh who cannot inhale freely through the nose, but must treat themselves by spraying. Liquid Cream Balm differs in form, but not medicinally from the Cream Balm that has stood for years at the head of remedies for catarrh. It may be used in any nasal atomizer. The price, including a spraying tube, is 75 cents. Sold by druggists and mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

A Knight Templar Praises Peruna

And Says: "I am Better Than I Have Been for Twenty Years."

Colonel T. P. Moody, of Chicago.

Colonel T. P. Moody, a prominent Knight Templar, is well known in every city in the United States west of Buffalo, N. Y., as a Jeweler's Auctioneer. In the city of Chicago as a prominent lodge man, being a member of the K. T.'s and also of the Masons. The cut shows Colonel Moody in the costume of the Oriental Consistory Masons, 32d degree.

"For over twenty-five years I suffered from catarrh, and for over ten years I suffered from catarrh of the stomach terribly.

"I have taken all kinds of medicines and have been treated by all kinds of doctors, as thousands of my acquaintances are aware in different parts of the United States, where I have traveled, but my relief was only temporary, until a little over a year ago I started to take Peruna, and at the present time I am better than I have been for twenty years.

"The soreness has left my stomach entirely and I am free from indigestion and dyspepsia and will say to all who are troubled with catarrh or stomach trouble of any kind, don't put it off and suffer, but begin to take Peruna right away, and keep it up until you are cured, as you surely will be if you persevere.

"My wife, as many in the southwest can say, was troubled with a bad cough and bronchial trouble, and doctors all over the country gave her up to die, as they could do nothing more for her. She began taking Peruna with the result that she is better now than she has been in years, and her cough has almost left her entirely. The soreness has left her lungs and she is as well as she ever was in her life, with thanks, as she says, to Peruna. Yours very truly,

Catarrh assumes many forms and attacks many organs. Colonel Moody had catarrh of the stomach, while his wife had catarrh of the lungs. Both were cured by Peruna, simply because catarrh is catarrh, wherever located. It may attack one organ or another. It may be chronic or acute. It may cause one a slight inconvenience or great suffering. Diseases that catarrh sets up are called by various names but they are all in reality catarrh. Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The market for cotton futures opened firm with prices five to six points higher on demand from shorts, light foreign support and rather more confident support from the bull forces. Immediately following the call this general buying carried October to 7.76 and January to 7.79, the highest figures of the day. Then came a reaction under profit taking and selling by pit scalpers for a turn. The cable news was considerably better than anticipated. Reports that foreign spinners were growing uneasy owing to the decreasing visible supply, official reports of general rains over the eastern and central belt, small receipts at nearly all points and bad crop reports, restrained would-be sellers and encouraged buying on the easier periods. Increased demand for cotton for export in the South and predictions for a bullish government report to-morrow helped to hold the market steady during the apathy which prevailed throughout the late forenoon and early afternoon. The issuance of some 3,000 or more October notices early in the day was unexpected and for a time had a depressing influence, but this heaviness was limited almost entirely to the October position. In the late session the market was very steady on covering and backing from bulls with the close steady at a net gain of one to five points. The January option was easily the favorite and led in all advances.

Next Session Begins September 18, 1901.

LIMESTONE COLLEGE, a high-grade institution of learning, invites the patronage of the Southern people on the ground of its high standard, which is the equal of that of any college in the United States whether for men or for women. Its thorough instruction, which is given by a large and able Faculty, using university methods, and its persistent and successful endeavor to develop in its students the highest culture, combined with refinement of manners and elevation of character. The institution possesses a location unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness in the entire South, buildings thoroughly equipped for college work, a splendid library, excellent laboratories, and all the material accessories of study. The College invites inspection of all these advantages. But the emphasis is laid upon the WORK DONE. Full literary, scientific, musical and artistic courses. Besides the degree of A. B., the degree of A. M. is given for advanced graduate work. THE WINNIE DAVIS SCHOOL OF HISTORY, endorsed by all the great leaders of the South, by the Legislature of South Carolina, the Legislature of Maryland, and the great Confederate Reunion at Louisville, gives elaborate instruction in Southern History and Southern Literature. For further information, apply to Capt. H. P. Griffith, Senior Professor, or to the President.

HE WENT UP HIGHER

HOW A GOVERNMENT CLERK SECURED LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

After Getting the "Royal Word" From the Secretary of His Department He Had Fun With the Division Chief, Who Had Turned Him Down.

"The question of sick and annual leave," said a clerk in an up town department to a reporter, "is one of the utmost importance to government clerks and is one of their most precious privileges. I will tell you of an occurrence in my department which will interest fellow clerks especially.

"A clerk in my division put in an application for a few days' leave in the usual form in writing, to be O. K.'d by the chief of division and sent on its way to the chief clerk of the department. Not hearing from it and the time approaching for his departure he went to his chief and said:

"'Mr. ——, how about my application?'

"'Here it is on my desk. I have not sent it up. It is too early in the year to apply for that length of time, important business or not. You cannot be spared.'

"My friend, who is a little fellow and a diplomat, grasped the situation at once. It happened that he had a personal acquaintance with the secretary, one of those rare instances where a cabinet officer has a personal acquaintance with one of his own clerks. They had met outside of the department, for the little fellow is a member of an influential family in the secretary's own district.

"He bowed and withdrew, but instead of going back to his desk he made a short cut up the corridors toward the secretary's room. Just as he was approaching the latter's private office entrance the secretary, in company with a couple of gentlemen, came out. Observing the clerk and his anxious, inquiring face, he paused, shook him cordially by the hand and exclaimed to his companions:

"'Senator, here is a bright little fellow from my state who is the father of the biggest, cherubic faced baby you ever saw and the husband of the happiest of wife mothers. Look at him blush. Well, what's the matter now?'

"'Why, I want to go away on business for a fortnight, and'—

"'Well, you little rascal, why don't you go? I'll let you—only be sure to come back and don't get lost on the cars.'

"The secretary's hearty laugh, in which the others joined, echoed in the marble tessellated corridors, and they passed on. The 'royal word' had been given.

"That evening at quarter to 4—he left it until last minute purposely—he went to his chief. It was his turn to rub it in.

"'Mr. ——,' he said quietly, 'have you sent up my leave?'

"'I have not,' replied the chief shortly. 'I disposed of that question this morning.'

"'I thought that the secretary granted leave in this department. I was not aware that chiefs of division possessed that authority.' It was war now. Both looked each other unflinchingly in the eye. Then the chief began to smell a little official mouse and resorted to browbeating, as is not unusual under similar circumstances.

"'You are impertinent'—

"'I beg your pardon,' quickly interrupted the clerk, 'for a chief to say to a clerk that he is impertinent imputes a charge against him. I request that you withdraw that remark. It is no impertinence for a clerk to state a rule of the department to his chief, more especially when he appears to have forgotten it or is unaware of its existence. The secretary, and he alone, finally grants or disapproves applications for leave in all departments of the government. I have never before heard this authority questioned'—

"'I don't question it,' hastily interjected the chief, to whose nose the official mousy smell was each moment becoming more acute.

"'By not submitting my application to those whose province it is to decide such questions you certainly do question it and exceed your authority. Approved or disapproved by you, they and not you pass on it finally, and, furthermore, you know it.'

"'I will send it up tomorrow,' said the chief as he climbed down from his high horse as gracefully as the occasion admitted. 'Let me see, you wish to go'—

"'Take your time,' replied my friend pleasantly. 'It is already granted. I have the secretary's personal permission to go provided I do not get lost on the cars. I start tomorrow, and I will try not to get lost. Good-by.'"—Washington Star.

SAVING AN OLD PAINTING.

Ingenious Method by Which It Was Transferred to New Canvas.

"Did you ever hear of transferring an old oil painting to a new canvas?" said a well known art connoisseur of this city. "One would declare at first blush that the thing was absolutely impossible, but I saw it done with a picture over eight feet square, and the operation was a perfect success. The painting to which I refer had been a fine example of the early Italian school, but it had lain forgotten in a garret for many years and had become so incrusted with dirt and grime that it was impossible to distinguish any of the details. Ordinarily it could have been cleaned without trouble, but the damp and mold of two centuries had rotted the canvas until it was ready to fall apart at a touch, and scrubbing was, of course, out of the question.

"That was the condition of things when it was taken in hand by an expert restorer from Belgium who happened to be in the city. The first thing he did was to glue a huge sheet of thick manila paper firmly to the face of the picture. Then he turned it over carefully and picked off every particle of the old decaying canvas, revealing the rear surface of the paint itself. It was a big job and required no end of patience, but the last thread was finally removed, and nothing was left but the fragile shell of pigment. That he covered with the strongest fish glue, and a new sheet of canvas was spread over it and pressed down.

"In a few hours it was perfectly dry, and the painting was as firmly attached to its new foundation as if it had been there from the start. Nothing then remained but to take off the manila paper, which was readily done with hot water. After that the surface was thoroughly cleaned, and the picture is now almost as bright and clear as it was when it left the painter's easel. The owner could hardly believe his eyes. It seemed to him that a veritable miracle had been accomplished."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Love in a Cottage.

Young Husband—Um! What are these, my dear?

Wife—Those are apple dumplings.

Husband—Er—my love, didn't you—er—dump them a little too often?—New York Weekly.

For Asthma use CHENEY'S EXPECTORANT.

England's Boy Choirs.

Julian Ralph, writing of "The Choir Boys of England," in The Ladies' Home Journal, says: "Small boys are much preferred, for the reason that they develop into manhood later than big, stalwart children, for it is at the coming of manhood that their voices break and they are obliged to stop singing until their adult tones are reached—a matter of years. A boyish treble is as delicate as the bloom on a peach, and its possessor must lead an orderly and innocent life, which is why so many choirs are made up of boys taken from their homes and boarded and taught in church institutions. These, sometimes, are able to sing until they are 17 or 18 years of age, though between 14 and 15 is the usual period when their voices break."

Gold Lined Geese.

According to the United States consul at Chung-King, China, in the department called Yung-pei, Chih-li Ting, gold is found in abundance by washing in the valley near the city. The inhabitants of the neighborhood keep large flocks of geese to work the goldfields for them. When the geese are found to be very heavy, they are killed and their maws emptied of the gold contained therein. A flock of geese is sometimes worth a good deal of money, but geese dressed ready for eating are very cheap indeed—from 15 to 20 cents each.

Usurped a Right.

Professor John Snelling Popkin was professor of Greek at Harvard some years ago, and he was not without a nickname, which he accepted as a matter of course from the students, but, hearing it on one occasion from a man of dapper, jaunty, unacademic aspect, Professor Popkin exclaimed: "What right has that chap to call me 'Old Pop?' He isn't a student of Harvard college."

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." THE LATEST AS TO NERVES AND STRENGTH

It is not muscle so much as the nerves back of muscle which show one's strength and power of endurance. And the study with able physicians of to-day is how to keep the nerves in perfect health and fitted for the strain of everyday living. Headache of every type, nerve weakness, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, languor, restlessness, nervous dyspepsia, muscular weakness, brain weariness, poor circulation,—a thousand different unpleasant feelings and symptoms are due to nerve waste and nerve weakness,—especially in women and children. But how can all this be prevented, one will ask? How can my broken-down constitution be repaired, and nerve strength and full, robust health be secured. Just two points to remember: Determine that you will grow strong in nerves and health, and decide to use at once that most famous nerve cure, COCELLIN. It is delicious in taste, quick in action and makes the wearied nerves tingle with renewed strength and every function the stronger and faculty the brighter by its use. Druggists sell it.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 3.

NICARAGUA CANAL PROJECT.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., October 2.—Harvis Jordan, of Georgia, president of the Southern Inter-State Cotton Growers' Association, read a paper on "The Nicaraguan Canal, its importance to farmers of the South and West," at the morning session of the Farmers' National Congress.

He declared that the canal was a "great national necessity," and that while the South and West would get a large share of benefit the East would also profit. He declared that the trans-continental railroads were bringing heavy pressure to bear on Congress to defeat the canal legislation and the producing classes ought to make a counter-demonstration. He said the railroads were short-sighted in opposing the canal, as the increased business which would come to them from an expansion of trade would more than offset traffic losses to the canal or resulting from decreased rates.

The speaker referred to President McKinley's Buffalo speech, pledging the administration to support the project, and expressed the belief that President Roosevelt would carry out that policy. He believed the canal would pay interest on its cost and operating expenses and a good income in addition with seventy cents per ton less toll than charged by the Suez canal. Discussion developed the fact that the congress was practically united in favoring the canal and it is likely that strong resolutions in its favor will be adopted.

Delegate Wicks, of Massachusetts, made an address on "The Rice Industry of the South."

OUTBREAK IN CHINA.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The State Department received to-day a cablegram from United States Consul Mc Wade, at Canton, China, confirming the reported uprising in the Singling district. The dispatch follows:

"Canton, Oct. 2.—Secretary of State, Washington.—General Wu, with 1,500 soldiers, routed Triad rebels in Singling district, Satow, killing 200 and capturing and decapitating many prisoners. German mission burned. German missionaries fled safely to Hong Kong."

This dispatch, taken in connection with previous advices the department has had from Minister Conger, leads to the belief that the Boxers have had nothing to do with the present outbreak, but that it is a local disturbance growing out of famine conditions, which the Chinese government can suppress.

STEAMER FOUNDERED.

Was Within Three Miles of Port—Crew and Passengers Escaped.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KINGSTON, ONT., Oct. 2.—The steamer Richelieu, owned by the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, and engaged on the route between Kingston and Belleville, foundered to-day while bound for this city. She was within three miles of port when she took a header and sank. A fairly heavy sea was running, which caused her cargo of freight to shift and before she could be righted she filled and went down in about sixty feet of water. Her crew and the passengers got ashore safely, but had a narrow escape, as only a few minutes elapsed from the shifting of the cargo until the boat had disappeared.

COLLISION ON THE L. & N.

Engineer Killed and Several Passengers Badly Hurt—Trains Demolished.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MIDDLEBORO, KY., Oct. 2.—A head-end collision between a north-bound passenger train and a freight train on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, near Hubbard Springs, Virginia, resulted in the death of Engineer Nick Seitz, of the passenger train. Several of the passengers, among whom was Thomas Martin, of Chicago, were badly hurt, but none fatally. The passenger train was on time and the freight crew thought they could reach a certain station before the passenger arrived. Both trains were demolished.

A FATAL AFFRAY.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MCDONOUGH, GA., Oct. 2.—In a fight which occurred between a storekeeper, T. J. Upchurch, his sons, Victor and Charlie, and Willis Goodwin, Jr., in Upchurch's store here to day, Charlie Upchurch was instantly killed with a baseball bat and his father and brother severely wounded. Goodwin was shot twice, and it is feared his wounds will prove fatal. There were no witnesses to the difficulty.

MISS HELEN H. STONE.

The Brigands Have Fixed October 8th as the Limit for Payment of Ransom.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 2.—The brigands who carried off Miss Helen H. Stone, the American missionary and her companion, Madame Tsilka, a Bulgarian lady, have fixed October 8th as the limit of time for the payment of the ransom, $110,000 demand for Miss Stone's release. The hiding place of the brigands has not yet been discovered and the delay accorded by the abductors is taken to indicate that they consider their retreat quite secure.

FIRST WITNESS IN SCHLEY'S BEHALF.

Lieut. James J. Doyle, an Officer On the Flagship Brooklyn in the Spanish War.

OTHER WITNESSES CALLED.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—An interesting turn was given to the Schley court of inquiry to-day by the introduction of the first witness in Admiral Schley's behalf. This was Lieutenant James J. Doyle, who was a watch officer on board the flagship Brooklyn during the war with Spain. The fact that Lieutenant Doyle was put on the stand does not mean that the Navy Department has concluded the presentation of its side of the case. Mr. Doyle was called by the department, but as it also had been the purpose of Admiral Schley to summon him, advantage was taken of his presence on the stand to question him as an original witness for "the applicant." He was under examination by Mr. Rayner in the interest of the admiral when the court adjourned for the day.

Before undergoing examination at Mr. Rayner's hands Lieutenant Doyle, at Captain Lemly's request, explained his part in the battle of July 3rd and his original entry in the ship's log concerning the famous loop and his alteration of that entry, because he subsequently discovered that his first entry had been erroneous.

Admiral Evans, Captain Sigsbee and Correspondent Dieuaide were all recalled for the purpose of correcting their testimony as given yesterday, and all made additional statements.

Lieutenant Commander Alexander M. Sharp, who commanded the converted yacht Vixen, was the first new witness of the day. He said that the weather on the cruise from Cienfuegos to Santiago had been squally, but that it had not been sufficiently bad to interfere with the speed of the Vixen.

Describing the service of the Vixen during the siege of Santiago under Commodore Schley, Commander Sharp said that he had been placed on picket duty. He was about two miles from the shore, he said, and probably three miles from the mouth of the harbor.

Mr. Hanna—"Could you have seen a vessel undertaking to pass out near the shore under those conditions?"

Commander Sharp—"If she had shown no lights and made no noise, I do not believe we could."

Commander Sharp told of going aboard the Brooklyn with Lieutenant Harlow's notes, and of the discussion concerning the question whether the Brooklyn made a turn to port or starboard.

Captain Parker questioned Commander Sharp concerning the notes made of the battle of July 3d by Lieut. Harlow on board the Vixen. This report has occasioned no little controversy, it being claimed by some of Admiral Schley's friends that after the copy of the notes was delivered to the Admiral (then Commodore) by Commander Sharp, the original notes were changed somewhat.

The witness said that he had taken a carbon copy to the Commodore after the battle.

"Do these notes state the truth of the battle as you saw it?" asked Captain Parker, and the witness replied:

"These are Lieutenant Harlow's notes. He took them and I am not prepared to say yes or no whether they are absolutely correct in every particular or not."

Commander Sharp said in response to questions by Mr. Rayner that one of the results of the bombardment of the Colon had been to develop the Spanish batteries.

Mr. Rayner then asked: "Do you recollect the conversation with Commodore Schley after the Colon reconnoissance in the presence of Lieutenant Harlow in which the Commodore remarked that his purpose had been to develop the strength of the batteries?"

"I really do not remember," was the response. "I wish I could."

On re-direct examination Captain Lemly brought out the fact as to the change in the Harlow notes.

Commander Sharp said: "When I was writing my report of the action of July 3rd, I said to Lieutenant Harlow, 'I desire a copy of your notes taken during the action to accompany my report to the admiral.' His reply, as near as I now remember it, was those notes were taken for the representative of a newspaper on board the Brooklyn, and I will have to make some changes in them. I said 'very well, I wish the notes to go with my report.' He afterward submitted to me the notes written in script which I read over and enclosed in my report to the admiral."

Judge Advocate Lemly had the witness compare the original copy of the Harlow notes with the copy printed on board the Brooklyn, with the result of showing that the notes had been changed before being printed, so as to make the account say that at 10:05 the two leading ships of the enemy "bore well on the Brooklyn's starboard quarter" instead of on her "starboard bow," and that at 11:45 the Brooklyn was "one point on port bow" instead of one point on starboard bow. It was developed that those changes placed the Brooklyn further ahead and nearer the shore.

Mr. Rayner—"I want to see if you recollect this incident. Do you remember that on the afternoon of the first or second of July you were called alongside the Brooklyn and by a megaphone message from Lieutenant Sears, speaking for Commodore Schley, directed to go to the New York and report to Admiral Sampson that Commodore Schley had observed suspicious movements of smoke in the harbor indicating vessels were moving toward the entrance and that Commodore Schley thought the enemy was preparing to come out; that you did go to the New York and report to Admiral Sampson as directed, and that by Admiral Sampson you were ordered to go to each vessel on the blockade and repeat Commodore Schley's message with an additional order from Admiral Sampson directing the ships to close in and keep a sharp lookout; that you performed this duty and so reported later in the same day that you had done as directed?"

"I have no remembrance of the occurrence. I am sorry to say. I wish I could remember."

In response to questions Commander Sharp said that according to Lieutenant Harlow's notes, as recorded in the Vixen's log, the flagship New York had come up about an hour and fifteen minutes after the Cristobal Colon had surrendered. The record read that the New York had arrived three to five minutes after the arrival of the Vixen, which had been at 2:25.

By the court—"What signals, if any, were made by the Brooklyn from the commencement to the end of the battle of July 3rd?"

"The Brooklyn had hoisted a signal, 'enemy attempting to escape.' That is in the notes. There may have been others, but I do not find any here."

By the court—"State the orders under which you acted when on blockade off Santiago."

"My impression is that I received my instructions from Commander McCalla to go inside of the line of vessels and to the seaward of Santiago about two miles. That is for the 29th, 30th and 31st of May."

Lieutenant Doyle said his first impression had been that the Brooklyn made her turn with starboard helm.

The witness read to the court that part of the log which relates to the turning of the port helm, as follows: "The enemy stood towards us at first, then put helm aport and stood along shore close in to the westward. We engaged with port battery at first, standing in for the Maria Teresa, the Colon and the Viscaya, all three of which we engaged; but just as soon as the enemy stood to the westward put helm to port, swinging (a little interlineation here) clear of the fire of the Texas, so as to bring the starboard battery to bear, and stood parallel to the enemy."

The witness then stated that the original entry in the log had made it appear that the helm was put to starboard instead of to port, as it appears in the permanent log. The change, he said, had been made on the 5th of July, two days after the action, after he had had a discussion with Sharp.

Mr. Rayner then took the witness and asked him if it was not true that the change in the log was due to an error on the part of the witness and to no desire upon the part of anybody to falsify the facts?"

"Absolutely," was the response.

Lieutenant Doyle then described the events prior to Schley's blockade of Santiago. Lieutenant Doyle placed the distance of the American fleet off Santiago from the mouth of the harbor at from three to four miles, and said there were picket boats on the inside of the line. Speaking of the bombardment of the Colon on the 31st of May (he and Mr. Rayner designating it as a reconnoissance), Lieutenant Doyle said its effect had been to develop the fact that the Spaniards had new guns in their land batteries.

Here Mr. Rayner asked: "When was the circular form of blockade commenced?"

While no mention was made of the name of Admiral Sampson, this question was regarded as an attempt to bring his blockade into the case for the purpose of comparison, and Captain Lemly was prompt in noting a sharp and vigorous objection.

Without waiting for any argument on the point, the court immediately announced a brief recess.

The members retired for a minute or two and when they returned, Admiral Dewey said: "The court decides that all questions relating to the blockade off Santiago must be confined to the time prior to the arrival of the commander-in-chief."

The court then adjourned for the day.

FOR THE AMERICA'S CUP.

Change of Programme for the Races Between Columbia and Shamrock as Agreed Upon.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The following official statement was given out to-day by the signers:

"The agreement determining the conditions and governing the races for the America's cup as agreed upon by the committees of the New York Yacht Club and the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, are hereby modified as follows:

"Strike out the clause beginning 'the first race shall be sailed on Saturday, September 21st, 1901,' and substitute the following: 'The races shall be sailed on the following dates until the series be completed, namely: September 26th, September 28th, October 1st and October 3, 1901, and each following day except Sunday; provided, however, that immediately on the conclusion of the race of October 3rd, and of each subsequent race, the regatta committee shall inquire of each contestant whether he is willing to start the next day, and should either contestant reply in the negative, one day shall intervene before starting the next race. Sunday will not count as such intervening day'."

IN BEHALF OF CZOLGOSZ.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Governor Odell arrived in this city this afternoon from Newburgh and when he reached the executive chamber he was surprised to find on his desk two letters requesting him to commute to life imprisonment the sentence of Czolgosz, the murderer of President McKinley. One letter was sent by a man in Illinois and the other by a man in Maine. They were evidently written by cranks, in the opinion of the Governor, and no attention will be paid to them.

"You may be assured that nothing will be done by me," said Governor Odell, "to prevent the execution of Czolgosz on the day fixed by law."

He also received a petition that the body of the murderer after the electrocution be buried at sea. The Governor understands that the body must be surrendered to the condemned man's relatives if they claim it after death that they may have charge of its disposition.

LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES.

Large Amounts Taken in the Mutual Life of New York by Prominent Business Men.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The tendency of business men to protect their estates by policies of life insurance is becoming as general as to protect their buildings by policies of fire insurance.

Since Mr. Geo. W. Vanderbilt, of New York, and Mr. Frank H. Peary, of Minneapolis, each took policies for ($1,000,000) one million dollars a few years since in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, there has been no equally large sum written on one individual. These remain the record figures for the world; but policies of $50,000 and $10,000, and even $20,000, are so frequent as to cause little comment; and even when Mr. Sidney A. Witherbee, of Detroit, took $30,000 in five per cent. gold bonds insurance from the Mutual Life, early in this year, it passed almost as a matter of course. It is significant that when a business man's estate is settled these days, life insurance is generally found to be a very important part of it; often all there is of it. Life insurance in one of the great companies yields a good rate of interest, as an investment, apart from the protection it affords.

THREE VICTIMS OF LYNCH LAW.

TWO NEGROES IN KENTUCKY.

Charged With the Murder of a White Man Who Was Cruelly Stoned to Death at Shelbyville—Both Mobs Took Prisoners From Jails.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

HELENA, MONT., Oct. 2.—James Edward Brady, the man who assaulted Ida Pugsley, five years old, in Helena yesterday, was this day, about ten o'clock, taken from the jail by a mob and hanged to a telegraph pole in the Haymarket square, about three blocks from the jail. The crowd was orderly, and, after the man was hanged, it quietly dispersed. There were about 200 men engaged in the affair, and they were all masked. They attacked the jail door with a battering ram, and it soon yielded. On gaining admittance they demanded at the point of a gun the keys of the jail, and threatened the jailor that if he did not yield the man they would kill him. The jailor then got the man out of his cell and he was given to the mob.

When they first took him, Brady asked: "What is it, gentlemen?"

The march to the hanging place was quiet. Brady was given a chance to say a word. He declared that they had the wrong man, although he had been positively identified by his victim and a score of other persons, who had seen him with the child. He also asked that some money, that was due him from the Montana Central railroad, be sent to a niece, and then he was pulled up. The end of the rope was tied to the pole and the crowd dispersed. Later, Sheriff McConnell cut the body down and placed it in a coffin. There will be an investigation to-day.

Kentucky Lynching.

SHELBYVILLE, KY., Oct. 2.—Jimbo Fields, aged 16, and Clarence Garnett, aged 18, both colored, were lynched here early this morning for the alleged murder of Will C. Hart, a printer, who was stoned to death on Saturday night, September 21. The boys were taken from the jail and swung from the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad trestle within five hundred yards of the jail.

The mob went to the jail and demanded the keys from the jailor, but he refused to surrender them. The doors of the jail were then battered down. The prisoners were removed almost before they had time to realize what was happening. The work was done quietly and the mob dispersed without its members' identity becoming known.

Hart came to Shelbyville from Lebanon, Ohio, and at the time of his death was employed as a printer on the Shelby Sentinel. The details of his death are not accurately known, but the evidence was conclusive that Fields and Garnett were his murderers. Hart's body was found in a path leading from the house of the mother of Jimbo Fields.

BOERS AND BRITISH.

Kitchener's Report of Recent Engagements—Many Killed and Wounded.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Lord Kitchener to-day reports that two officers and thirty-one men have been killed in an attack made on Col. Kekewich's camp, at Moedwill. The Boers, who were under commandants De Larey and Kemp, had fourteen officers and 114 men wounded, after two hours night fighting, when the Boers were driven off. The Boer reverse at Moedwill occurred Sept. 29th. The Boers are reported to have been one thousand strong. Lord Kitchener, in his dispatch says the British repelled the attack with great vigor. Colonel Kekewich was slightly wounded in two places. He says that all ranks behaved extremely well. The wounded were taken to Rustenburg, half way between Pretoria and Mafeking. Lord Kitchener confirms the heavy losses of the Boers, about 250 killed and 300 wounded during their attack on Fort Itala and Fort Prospect. He says the guns recently captured at Vlakfontein have been recovered from the Boers.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A telegram from Bloemfontein indicates that the guns Lord Kitchener reports having recovered were dug up, the Boers having buried them.

A mixed column, under General Kitchener, (Lord Kitchener's brother) has been sent to relieve, presumably Natal, from Commandant General Botha's forces. It has reached Vryheid.

HARROWING DETAILS.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANILA, Oct. 2.—The latest advices from the island of Samar give harrowing details of the slaughter of the members of Company C, Ninth U. S. infantry, last Saturday, at Balangiga. It seems that the presidente of the town, claiming to be friendly, led the assault in person.

On hearing of the slaughter Col. Isaac D. Derussy, of the Eleventh infantry, started for the scene immediately with a battalion. The body of Captain Connell had been tied at the heels, saturated with kerosene and partly burned. Forty five bodies had been burned in a trench, leaving seven unaccounted for. The charred remains of many were recovered. In numerous instances the bodies had been badly mutilated.

Three hundred Macabebees will also be dispatched to the scene of the massacre on board the Legaspi, which is delayed by a typhoon.

THE RACE TO-DAY.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The Weather Bureau to-night issued the following forecast for to-morrow's yacht race at Sandy Hook:

"Fresh northwest winds and fair weather to-morrow. The winds ought to hold good throughout the day."

Yachting enthusiasts and the general public are to-night expecting a most exciting race to morrow between the cup defender Columbia and the challenger Shamrock II. They base their high hopes on the strong wind blowing to-night and which the local weather prophets assert is likely to keep up for twenty-four hours or more.

MOURNING IN MANY A FAMILY

Precious Lives That Might Have Been Saved.

If Paine's Celery Compound Had Early Been Used

There should be new legislation against the exercise of criminal ignorance in times of sickness.

Many a good family is in mourning today for the loss of a relative who, when first the symptoms of serious sickness appeared, made the fatal mistake of simply taking the wrong medicine.

As soon think of stopping the sun with a wave of the hand as of stopping the onward course of disease in the human system with any of the various patent concoctions under patent names so numerously in the market today.

There is but one remedy known to medicine that can bring new life and vigor to worn-out nerves, restore to their normal condition the functions that depend upon nerves and brain, properly nourished and fed, that cures sleeplessness, allays indigestion, sends healthy blood coursing through the veins, tones up the system and makes the weak strong again, and that is Paine's celery compound—the discovery of the greatest of America's many great physicians.

Paine's celery compound is not a patent medicine. It is the one prepared remedy that has the unqualified endorsement of those physicians whose knowledge and ability have made their names known not only among their immediate neighbors, but throughout the country.

No other prepared remedy was ever recommended publicly or privately by the head of the medical department of a great university. No other remedy ever had the hearty, bona fide endorsement of the wives and households of the wealthiest as well as the poorer citizens in every community.

A single bottle, to be had of any reputable druggist, will prove its unequalled merit to any family where today some member suffers from the much-to-be-feared beginnings of what before the winter is past, unless attended to promptly, may prove to be the final breakdown.

"Paine's celery compound, says Hon. R. L. McKee, of Jefferson City, one of the soundest men in public life in Missouri, "Paine's celery compound is so well known that I feel that a recommendation from me can add very little weight, but I do wish to gratefully recommend it to those who have never been so fortunate as to try it."

There is no season so favorable as this for taking advantage of the wonderfully renovating virtues of this remedy. Don't begin the winter in poor health. Nature does little at this season to rejuvenate unaided the fagged-out brain or to restore to health the diseased nerves. Paine's celery compound nourishes perfectly the bodily system. It cures diseases of the important organs of digestion, circulation, and excretion, regulates the entire nervous system and supplies the body with strength to combat disease.

STRIKING MINERS.

A Serious Clash With Non-Union Men. Several Were Wounded.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., Oct. 2.—A serious clash occurred during the night between non-union employes and supposed striking miners. Cottages of employes at the Empire mines in North Christian were attacked by about twenty-five men, supposed to be union men from Hopkins county. Over a hundred shots were exchanged. Albert Burton, an Empire employe, was shot through the eye and may die. Guards arrived and the attacking party fled. Monday night non-union men returning from work were fired upon from ambush. Tom Bell was shot through the leg and several had narrow escapes, bullets passing through their clothing.

FIRE AT ALTON, ILL.

Standard Milling Plant and Other Property Destroyed—Loss $400,000.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—Fire that broke out at 10 A. M. in the plant of E. O. Stanard Milling Company, on the river front, at Alton, Ill., destroyed that and several other buildings, causing a loss estimated at $400,000. A high wind blew the sparks broadcast, threatening the destruction of the business section of Alton. The fire was finally under control about 1:30 o'clock. The heaviest loser is the E. O. Stanard Milling Company, three buildings, loss $300,000; insured.

CHINESE COURT TO RETURN TO PEKIN.

Preparing to Start On the Journey—Arrangements Along the Line—The Reform Movement.

By Cable to the Morning Star

PEKIN, Oct. 2.—Dispatches from Sian Fu announce that the Chinese court is preparing to start about Oct. 6th. The temporary palace there is being dismantled, and all the furnishings will be carried for use en route. The officials and servants will constitute a caravan numbering from 3,000 to 5,000 persons, with 1,300 carts and several thousands of horses and mules that have been collected in the Sian Fu district. Two parties have already started to make preparations along the line. The towns through which the court will pass are engaged in decorating temporary palaces and collecting supplies. The Emperor, or the Empress Dowager, in his name, has issued an edict strictly commanding the officials to pay for all supplies.

The native papers report that several eunuchs have been beheaded for practicing extortion upon the people. An imperial edict commands Li Hung Chang, as governor of the province of Chi Li, to borrow 700,000 taels from the other provinces to defray the expenses of the court's journey. Special local taxes are being levied which the people, already impoverished by bandits, foreign punitive expeditions and missionary indemnities, are ill able to afford.

Li Hung Chang said to-day: "The court will certainly arrive in Pekin within two months."

Despite such official statements many foreign officials here believe the Empress Dowager fears the foreign troops are kept to entrap and punish her, and the theory is that she will pass the Winter in Kai Yuen Fu sending the Emperor to Pekin.

Prince Ching, conversing with foreign officials to-day asserted that the Emperor and the Empress Dowager were agreed as to the necessity of changing the Chinese methods of government and that steps for the enforcement of edicts would be taken as soon as the court returned to Pekin.

Unquestionably the reform movement is stronger among the upper classes than ever before. Prince Su, who was recently appointed collector of taxes on goods entering Pekin—an office heretofore considered worth 100,000 taels per year—has announced that he purposes to deposit all the collections in the treasury and to request the Emperor to pay him a fair salary. His subordinates resent this plan and Prince Su has been threatened with assassination.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

WILMINGTON, N. C., September 28th, 1901.

To the Citizens of Wilmington and the County of New Hanover:

The Board of Managers of the James Walker Memorial Hospital have to announce that the new Hospital, which was donated to the city and the late James Walker, has been completed and delivered to the Managers.

Ample provision has been made by the city and county authorities for support and maintenance of the Hospital. Before its usefulness can be realized, it must be furnished and equipped; and this duty is among those devolved upon the Board of Managers in assuming charge of the property. A careful estimate has been made and it is ascertained that it will require at least six thousand dollars to properly furnish and equip the Hospital. An appeal is now made to the citizens of the city and county to supply this amount. It having been suggested that many private citizens would desire to make contributions towards this purpose, the Board has decided to open subscription lists in order that an opportunity may be afforded to those who desire to do so, to contribute. These subscription lists are in the hands of Dr. C. P. Bolles, the Secretary of the Board, at the office of Messrs. Hugh MacRae & Co., Bankers, and it is hoped that liberal contributions will be promptly made. It has been decided that, in order to have the Hospital uniformly and properly equipped, the same must be done under the supervision of the Board of Managers, and that, on this account, the contributions must be in cash.

W. G. ELLIOTT, President of the Board.
